

Journal of Futures Studies

Volume 29

Number 3

March 2025

Introduction	1	Beyond Hesitancy: Dialogues and Reflections on Feminist Futures Ivana Milojević
Articles	7	Feminist Futures as Unthought Futures Haya Al-Noaimi
	13	A Hesitant Futurist's Reflections on Feminist Design Beyond Binaries Sarah Elsie Baker
	21	International Security and Feminist Sociotechnical Imaginaries: Inclusive Futures for Peace Kimberly Alves Digolin, Jonathan de Araujo de Assis
	27	Decolonial Feminism as a Future Direction for Liberatory Feminist Futures Tiffany Nassiri-Ansari, Johanna Riha, Katindi Sivi, and Emma L Rhule
	35	Feminizing Futures Nur Anisah Abdullah
Essays	49	How Feminism Was a Part of My Life, but I Did Not Know That Yelena Muzykina

	57	Re-imagining the Present through Futures: Speculative Design for Destigmatising the Menstrual Cycle in Organisational Contexts
		Lena Rissmann, Denise Bianco
	67	New Work, Old Inequalities: A Feminist Deconstruction of the Image of the Future of New Work
		Anika Keils
	75	Applying Feminist-Informed Foresight to Feminist Foreign Policy: A Reflection on Potentials and Challenges
		Clara Jöster-Morisse
	83	WILD Feminine Futures
		Willow Pryor
Review	91	Book Review: The Hesitant Feminist's Guide to the Future by Ivana Milojević
		Ralph Mercer